Re: Medical Revenue Recovery Services, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

Since our emergency room physician group began working with Medical Insurance Recovery Services (MIRS) we have been extremely pleased with their performance and assistance in collecting delinquent debt from our self-pay patients as well as the insured. MIRS has helped ensure our revenue stream is uninterrupted by providing medical collection and complete recovery services. Reimbursement of outstanding claims is vital to the success of any healthcare provider. Our practice is able to operate comfortably and focus on providing healthcare versus struggling to collect what we are legally owed. We strongly recommend MIRS to any medical facility as a follow up to existing billing services.

Sincerely,
